

APA Film Contest

Call for Entries: APA

Cinema St. Louis and the Animal Protective Association of Missouri invite St. Louis-area filmmakers to create a short film that celebrates the bond between people and their pets.

Finalists will be showcased on the APA website (apamo.org), the APA MySpace page (MySpace.com/apamo), YouTube and at the APA's Grand Reopening Party.

Cinema St. Louis will then choose one of the films to screen as part of its St. Louis Filmmakers Showcase in July.

Contest Details

St. Louis-area filmmakers interested in participating must choose a theme from the APA website (apamo.org) and create a short that runs a maximum of 5 minutes based on their chosen theme. Some examples of possible themes: the APA as a St. Louis landmark, adopt a pet instead of buying from a pet store, pets can add seven years to your life, etc.

Experimental, narrative, animated and documentary approaches are all acceptable. The shorts can be shot in any film or video format, in either color or black-and-white.

Filmmakers must live within a 120-mile radius of St. Louis

All films must be submitted on DVD.

There is no entry fee.

Deadline is April 1st, 2008 .

Submission of short does not guarantee its use at the APA.

For more information on the APA, please visit the website www.apamo.org or the shelter at 1705 South Hanley Road.

For questions about the contest, please call (314) 645-4610 ext. 124.
